

We are looking for a Maintenance Manager to provide leadership and direction to the maintenance team at our Spokane, WA food plant. Great opportunity to use your talents to make a difference and be part of a growing team.

Come explore a career with us!

Essential Job Functions:

- Provide effective leadership and direction to the maintenance team
- Collaborate with management members to improve overall plant performance
- Coordinate maintenance schedules with department leadership and manage the maintenance schedule
- Lead preventive and predictive maintenance programs for the facility
- Build effective relationships with operations team leaders to maintain a positive and productive work environment
- Coach, train and develop direct reports
- Promote an environment that fosters effective communication and positive employee relations
- Effectively communicate safety, quality, good manufacturing practices and technical training to maintenance team.
- Complete all documentation and administrative work required for the position
- Identify and implement cost saving ideas for facility maintenance
- Manage spare parts inventory through maintenance, repairs and operations data
- Interface with vendors and contractors providing services to the facility to ensure company needs are met.

Essential Job Requirements

- Bachelor's Degree in Engineering or Food Processing related area or equivalent combination of education and/or experience strongly preferred
- Minimum of 5 years' experience in industrial plant maintenance, preferably in an automated food manufacturing environment
- Minimum of 3 years' experience in a leadership capacity required
- Demonstrated track record of success in motivating, coaching and organizing a strong technical team
- Effective verbal, written, interpersonal and presentation skills required
- Computer proficiency required
- Ability to work in an environment that is high in dust, noise, heat, and humidity
- Must be able to walk, climb stairs and ladders to 20 feet and enter confined spaces as needed

Please email your resume and cover letter to: slemens@philamacaroni.com