

Systems Analyst - Manufacturing

The Manufacturing analyst position at Philadelphia Macaroni Company is responsible for ensuring that the manufacturing systems and data supporting the production of products are done so in a safe and efficient manner, meeting our quality standards. Working in a collaborative manner with plant personnel to ensure that all aspects of production are handled correctly.

We are seeking a highly-motivated Manufacturing analyst to work across our seven facility footprint to identify ways to improve efficiency and reduce costs in the manufacturing process. This role will work in a collaborative manner with plant person to ensure that all aspects of production are handled correctly and will work with senior members of the Financial and Information Technology team on key corporate strategic initiatives.

At Philadelphia Macaroni Company, we focus on career development and acquired knowledge to help you further your career with us. Through this role, you will not only have the chance to be a part of an industry-leading company, but also the opportunity to advance your skill sets and professional development.

Primary System Analyst - Manufacturing Responsibilities:

- Analyze current manufacturing system design in our ERP (Infor M3) for opportunities to better support the manufacturing process.
- Analyze data, system and operational processes to identify opportunities for process improvements or cost savings.
- Analyze warehouse management system design (Factory Track) for opportunities to better support warehousing and transportation processes.
- Provide on-site training for new or enhanced process changes.
- Establish performance benchmarks to assess current processes and identify areas of improvement.
- Provide primary support for the manufacturing and warehouse teams in all systems related issues and opportunities.
- Work efficiently with management in our corporate office, plant management, as well as on your own, to achieve project goals.

Candidate Requirements:

- In-depth knowledge of current ERP system functionality. Preferably Infor M3.
- Familiarity with Six Sigma techniques and tools. Certification preferred.
- Ability to travel to manufacturing facilities. Up to 75% travel.
- BS in Business Management Science, Computer Science or related field is required.
- Minimum of 5 years of System Management experience in a Supply Chain organization.
- Experience working in a food or beverage environment preferred.
- Desire to advance in skills and leadership.
- Personable, energetic, and professional demeanor with a positive frame of mind.
- Reliable and great at communicating as part of a team.
- Eagerness to grow professionally and ability to juggle multiple tasks simultaneously.
- The ability to troubleshoot and problem solve.
- Goal oriented with the ability to plan and execute.

Company Background:

- Philadelphia Macaroni Company is where old-world tradition meets cutting-edge innovation. For over a century, we've stood as the innovative partner behind many of the world's greatest pasta development and marketing successes. PMC is a fifth-generation family owned business renowned for our history of pushing boundaries and seeing the opportunity that lies within our partners' most difficult pasta challenges.

- PMC is a vertically-integrated pasta manufacturer with six pasta manufacturing facilities and flour mill strategically located across the United States. For an international customer base, we develop and manufacture all styles of dry, frozen and specialty pastas for industrial, branded retail, and foodservice applications.

Our company offers a competitive package including PTO, paid holidays, bonus based on performance, free parking, 401(k) with employer match, health, dental, vision, life insurance and short and long-term disability insurance.

Please email your resume and cover letter to: sclemens@philamacaroni.com

Equal Opportunity Employer